

From 10.09.2015 to 10.09.2015

From 10:30 to 18:30

Swiss Pavilion, Auditorium

Forum “Origin, Diversity and Territories”

Organized in collaboration with the FAO, UNIDO, CIRAD, RIMISP, the International Platform for Cultural and Territorial Biodiversity, Slow Food International and Swiss Association REDD.

10.30

Introduction: Dominique Barjolle, FiBL; Florence Arsonneau, Diversity & Development.
Presentation of the theme “Right to Food”: Guillén Calvo, Diversity & Development

11.30 – 12.15

– Salvatore Aricò, Sr. Program Specialist and Team Leader, UNESCO Science-Policy Interface and Assessments, Division of Science Policy and Capacity Building Natural Sciences Sector

– Francesco Torrigiani, Partnership and Program Policy Office, Oxfam Italy

12.15 – 13.00

Presentation of the FAO study on the economic impacts on geographical indications by Catherine Teyssier, Quality & Origin project coordinator FAO

Presentation of the first results of students involved in case studies

14.30 – 17.30

Best practices exchange with 7 international initiatives (vegetable garden in Ivory Coast, pepper in Cameroon, traditional garlic in Chili, local food in Argentina, traditional sweet making in Colombia, agrobiodiversity in Cuba and short circuit between producers and consumers in Geneva, Switzerland)

17.30 – 18.30

Conclusions

Link

 Schweizerische Eidgenossenschaft
Confédération suisse
Confederazione Svizzera
Confederaziun svizra

Dipartimento federale degli affari esteri DFAE
Segreteria generale SG-DFAE
Presenza Svizzera

Swiss Pavilion

Discover Switzerland
Presence Switzerland
Contact Us

